President's Report

Welcome to the latest issue of Bordertales and the last for 2009! I would like to take this opportunity to wish all committee and club members and their families (both human and canine!) all the best for the festive season. I hope that your Christmas is joyous and that 2010 is a great year for all!

Our last meeting for the year included a lovely supper provided by various committee members - thanks to all who contributed and also to all who attended - it proved to be a very enjoyable meeting night!

Further congratulations to those club members who have progressed through the second examination stage for the judges training scheme - everyone passed which is great news - good luck for your ongoing studies as the 2010 lecture year commences. Our club will be hosting the Border Collie breed lecture in Sydney in February - check the journal or later newsletters for further details as we will also be called upon to provide dogs for the practical exams.

Former committee member and well know Border Collie person, Lorraine Warren Powell, suffered some bad luck recently with her home being damaged by a house fire. 2009 has not been a great year for Lorraine so we wish her all the best and hopefully 2010 will be a better year!

Merry Christmas - until next time!

Cheers, Lauren Somers (President)

Meet Your Committee...

Alice Baxter – Herding Trial Secretary

Where do I start, I know this is supposed to be about my involvement in Border Collies, and the Border Collie Committee. But its very hard when our Border Collies are a family concern, and they (my boys and Hubby) all help out at Trials etc.

In 1991 my hubby Cecil and I purchased our first pure breed Border Collie and because of this tri coloured bundle of fluff, our love affair with the Border Collie started and now all my five sons and one of my sisters have Border Collies.

Cecil and I became members of the Border Club of NSW Inc soon after buying "Echo", Trimel Coat of Colours CD ADM JDX, and I was voted into the position of Trophy Steward in my first year as a member. I have held various other positions on the Committee, including General Committee, Show & Trial Secretary, Trial Secretary and now Herding Trial Secretary. I have also helped out at DNA collection nights etc, etc. and do machine embroidery for and maintain the Club Shop.

We tried the show world but discovered that our Borders excel when on the move, such as in Obedience, Agility & Herding. If I had persisted, I could have gained "Indy's" (Bordertec Indigo Princess JD GD) final points for her Championship title.

Our Borders have gained titles up to Masters in Agility & Jumping, and Started title in herding on both Ducks & Sheep, next is the challenge in ANKC herding on the Intermediate level and three sheep.

Border Collies are such a versatile breed and because of this they are always a challenge, but who would want to live without them once you have owned one, it would be very hard as they can be such loveable rouges and because of this, our involvement will always be for the betterment of this breed.

The committee of the Border Collie Club of NSW Inc wishes all it's Members a very Merry Christmas and a happy and prosperous New Year

The Pet EXPO 2009

Our club attended the annual Sydney Pet Expo held in November and what a wonderful three days. As always our breed was very popular and the public really enjoyed being able to interact with the dogs & ask questions. The dogs represented the club with impeccable manners & great enthusiasm. We were lucky enough to have puppies and certainly they were a big draw card.

Many thanks to Colleen, Ann, Sue, Barb, Greg, Eileen, Sue, Karen, Glennice, Sarah, Deb, Ann & Julia, our dedicated members who came over the weekend to represent the club and very generously gave their valuable advice to the public. But without a doubt the dogs really are the stars of the Expo and I'm sure they enjoyed themselves too. We certainly owe a lot to these delightful dogs, so please give them a big hug from me.

We are always keen to see people from any discipline come along to these events, so keep your eye out for the next promotions day.

Kelly Gill

Kellie did an amazing job and had her wonder dogs in centre stage throughout the day all three days. All the dogs were bathed and groomed and looking their best for the crowd who were gathered around the tables at all times.

The Club wishes to especially thank Kellie and all those members that turned up to promote our breed.

On Our Cover

Australian Grand Champion Trucharm The Power O Three - "Piper"

We are extremely proud of our special girl! We all have our once in a lifetime dog that change our destiny within the breed. Piper is that girl, born not long after arriving in Queensland we were the occasional weekend show family. Piper changed all that for us, as she started to do well in the show ring so did our interest in showing.

She is as special outside the ring as she is inside. She is loved and adored by everyone who meets her and loves nothing more than to curl up on your lap!

She has continued to do well over the years and has been very competitive at Royals & National, having placed at both Nationals and all Brisbane Royals. Her biggest successes have been at Queensland Specialities under breed specialists.

2005	Challenge Bitch	Judy Vos – Clan Abby
2007	Reserve Bitch & Runner Up In Show	Janice Baldwin – Yarrancoly
2008	Challenge Bitch	Lauren Somers - Nahrof

Having spent considerable time out of the country over the last few years Piper's title could not have happened without the support of my friends who helped show her and to Nadia Radcliffe the super groomer, making that unruly coat look awesome even on her worst hair day!

Piper is the first homebred Australian Grand Champion for Trucharm Border Collies! She is sired by Grand Ch Monochrome CurrencyCreek "Monty" from Trucharm Royal Spirit "Chloe".

Around the Traps ... ...

With Ed

Not only has there been a number of Border Collie exhibitors successful in passing their entrance exams to become Aspiring Judges, but we also have 2 more fully accredited ANKC Herding Judges, congratulations go to Mrs Josie Kimpton and Alice Baxter.

In the first week of December, it is with sadness, that I need to report that Margaret Morgan's mother (Kellagem Border Collies) - Joan - died suddenly.

Also at the start of December, Lorraine Warren-Powell's house caught fire and while not completely burnt, it meant that she is now staying with her daughter at Narellan, and she is fine as are her dogs. She was renting the house and the contents were insured (though not to the full value but who does..). Her dog records and equipment and everything else that was stored in the garage were untouched. The house has been inspected and may be repaired, the interior shell is gone but some of the structure is OK and still sound according to the fire guys. The Club has made Lorraine a donation and she expressed her appreciation and thanks to the club for their generosity.

October Obedience Trial Report 2009

I wish to apologise to the Obedience fraternity that this report did not get published with the October Obedience Trial results - Editor.

Thank you to everyone who contributed in making the trial run smoothly.

Congratulations to Judy Turley with OCH Glenloy Bonnie Baillie UD,ADX,ADO,JDX,JDO,GD,ET on gaining first place in UD and the only qualifier.

Congratulations to Anne Howard with Etherial Lovehart CD TDX ET on winning the Open ring with no other qualifiers.

There were no qualifiers in Novice - a disappointing result.

Congratulations to Judith Stanley with Gadhar Miss Hissy Fit who won the CCD ring and the only qualifier. Congratulations Judith on your title.

Winner of Winners was an exciting event with Judy Turley being the winner. Well done to both Judy and Baillie.

A special thank you to our judges, Jill Kaldor and Sue Fed, along with my stewards, Diane, Reegan, Cheryl, Kim and Helen in making it a successful day.

To Penny Dalziel, my many, many thanks for being a tower of strength to me by your support in writing out the blue cards and organising morning teas for the obedience rings.

My apologies for the condition of the grounds, with the burrs and bindis. I have made the committee aware so hopefully next year will be a different event.

The Collie Club Show - New Zealand - October 25, 2009

I was delighted to have the opportunity to judge Border Collies at this event in Auckland in October and would like to extend my thanks to both the club for the invitation and to some of their club members for the hospitality shown to me during my visit. Melissa Dean from Benshiva kennels travelled 'across the ditch' with me and we enjoyed a great day prior to the show with Karen and Steven Peel originally from South Africa (Fragglerock Kennels) and now enjoying a new lifestyle in New Zealand, and we relaxed after the show with Warwick and Sandra Fleming (Glen-Cova Kennels).

Best In Show Winner

Despite prior weeks of very ordinary weather, the evening show was able to be held outdoors in beautiful conditions and the club hosted a small get together after the show which was also attended by fellow Aussie Lorraine Warren-Powell (Tuckonie Kennels) who had performed the judging honours earlier in the day at the Working Dog Club of Auckland.

Runner Up Best In Show

It is always interesting to have a chance to view and go over Border Collies in other countries and I thank the exhibitors for their entries. My choices for Best and R/Up Best of Breed wins were awarded to my Dog Challenge and Reserve winners - Aust/NZ Ch Clan-Abby NZ Dream Lover (owned by Vos & Tang and handled by Land Tang), and Aust/NZ Ch Shelton Midday Zipper at Charfay (owned by Greer & Ewing and handled by Stephen Greer), and I was delighted when both these dogs went on to win Best in Show and Runner Up Best in Show under the NZ judge Mr. Kevin Warneford, who presided over General Specials.

Bitch awards were won by Greer's NZ Ch Shelton Tartan Frill (Challenge) and Fleming's NZ Ch Tullaview Tempt Me Twice at Glen-Cova (Reserve Challenge). Tartan Frill also went on to win her class in show.
