(Sire: Gr Ch Nahrof Say No More x Dam: Ch Wiralee Moon Shadow)

When "Caleb" won Best in Show at the club's 2007 October show he created a bit more breed history becoming the fourth generation (on a direct sire line) to win this event. He follows his sire Gr Ch Nahrof Say No More, his grandsire Aust/Eng Sh Ch Nahrof No Comment and his great grandsire Grand/Am Ch Nahrof First Edition who won the event an incredible 7 times!

Caleb is also the 8th Nahrof dog or bitch to win a speciality challenge at our club show. Our thanks to Sharon Hannigan for handling him to this lovely win.

President's Report

Compliments of the season and welcome to the first edition of Bordertales for 2008 - this is a special issue (thanks Tiffany for the extra effort you have put in) as there are several important matters which can't wait until February. The nominations for our 2009 judging panels have been received and collated and these are included later in the newsletter - please take the time to think about your preferences and then get your votes back to our secretary Ann as soon as possible. There is also a request for items for inclusion on the agenda for the next NBC meeting - the only way to get matters raised and discussed is if they are on the agenda so if you have matters of importance that you want raised and discussed, please send them in. The National Breed Council is not just about National shows, it is the way in which we can have a 'voice' with the ANKC on breed related matters - which are many and varied. Your input and support will make sure that the NBC is a relevant and viable entity.

Thanks to one of our current committee, Lyn Cook, who has offered to take on the role of show secretary for conformation events - this will prove a great help and allow Alice Baxter to concentrate on the performance and herding events - the work load doing all events was just getting too much for Alice on her own - that is one of the problems when you are involved with a breed that 'does it all'!!

Whilst on the subject of shows.....our next club show and trial is already looming on the horizon and whilst it is great to come along and compete and win some lovely prizes and sashes at these events, unfortunately it seems to always be the same people who step up every show when it comes to class sponsorship.....I think that it is time to share the load.....so, if you haven't sponsored a class or an award at our shows before then here is your chance to make a contribution!! Sponsorship will be acknowledged in the catalogue and your generosity will certainly be appreciated!!

Until next time.....

Lauren Somers

HERDING UPDATE

Border Collie Herding Training

Firstly, to all members and their dogs, a very happy New Year, and I hope that 2008 will bring lots of happiness and inspiring achievements. Just to catch everyone up with what is happening with Herding training.....

The Sporting Committee of Dogs NSW have decided that they will take over the training days in 2008 on the Saturdays. This decision was made because of the number of clubs wanting to run training days and there were just not enough days in the month for everyone to have a day. All members are welcome to go to the training days that the Sporting Committee will run and there will be instructors there to help run the days. They also have decided to run training on Wednesdays at Erskine Park in 2008 which again all are welcome to.

However the little snag at the time of writing is that we have no sheep to train on at Erskine Park as they have all been sold!! There is hope that we will have new sheep back by March however, these new sheep will have to be worked down to be able to be used by beginners before training can resume. This is quite a dilemma as it is not good for dogs to be off the sheep for this long a period of time, but we have been lucky enough that our BC Chief Instructor of herding, Colin Webster has stepped in and opened up his home at Bathurst for members to be able to train their dogs.

We had a weekend in December which was very enjoyable and once again we all learned something new from Colin. Our next training weekend is the 12th and 13th January. (if you come up Friday night we all can have a night at the local club and have a nice early start Saturday) Camping is available and training for the weekend is $5. Please contact Ann Moy if you would like to come to book and for further details 0247541937 or ularabcollies@ozemail.com.au

Hope to see you out herding in 2008!

Cheers
Ann

The Border Collie Club NEEDs Your Help.

Please consider coming along with or without your dog, no experience necessary, the only requirements are:

- Your dog must be very people friendly.
- Your dog must be very tolerant of other dogs sharing a small space.
- You must be keen to share your love of Border Collies with the public.

This promotes our breed and encourages people to seek out ethical breeders via the Border Collie club.

It's a fun day for us as well as the dogs. If you would like more information please call Kelly Gill 02 49981333 or email kerodan@optusnet.com.au

NEW TITLE

Nahrof Dalriadah

Sire - Aust Gr Ch Nahrof Say No More
Dam - Glentora Tripitaka

Enniskey gained her UD title in style with a final pass of 199 at the end of September, 2007 and then after resting on her laurels went ahead to achieve her 5 passes for her Obedience Championship on 24th November, 2007 with several 1st places.

Trialing Enniskey is always a challenge. You never know what she is going to do next - like greeting the judge or leaving the ring to say Hi to a passing stranger.

500 POINTS

Aust Ch Nahrof More Than Words HIT

Sire: Gr Ch Nahrof Say No More x Dam: Ch Wiralee Hard Headed Woman

“Grif” was untitled (although not by much!) when he won the dog challenge at Sydney Royal 2007. We are delighted to now report that just 7 months and some 25 show appearances later, he has enjoyed sufficient ring success to bring his point tally to over 500!

Befjekafli

He continued his success at Royal shows by winning the Intermediate Dog class at Brisbane Royal and then Reserve Challenge and R/up Best of Breed at Melbourne Royal. Other notable wins include multi Best in Group and R/up Best in Group awards and Best of Breed wins at major Sydney shows including County of Cumberland, North of the Harbour and the Spring Fair.

A very easy dog to show and a delightful home companion, we look forward to his continued success as he matures.

RESUMES

NOMINATED JUDGES – 2009 BCC OF NSW CHAMPIONSHIP SHOW & TRIALS

Conformation

Miss B. Warman (NZ) - This judge has a lovely manner with both new and old exhibitors and their dogs. She gives you time to prepare and is respectful of all exhibitors. She appears to also have a genuine love and knowledge of our breed.

Mrs Lynn Harrison (SA) - Breed specialist with many years experience as a breeder and exhibitor Cherry Simmons-Hill (NZ) - I acquired my first rough collie when I was 19 and then got the showing bug. Over the last 40 odd years I have kept my love for the breed and have bred under the Avonia prefix breeding many Champions, Group and in Show winners along the way. I still have a breeding and show kennel of seven rough collies.

I became a working dog judge about 30 years ago and then Gundogs a year or two later. Over the years I have judged in both Australia and New Zealand but it would be many years since I set foot on Australian soil.

Two of the highlights in my judging were judging Best In Show at the Victorian Working Dog Championship Show and judging the collie and Shetland sheepdog show In Newcastle.

I am a life member and past president of both Huntly and Districts Kennel Assn and Waikato and Districts Collie Club.

Much of my showing and judging has been put on the backburner in recent years as I am also a dog groomer and work commitments have taken up many of my weekends.

Now in 2008 this will change and I am looking forward to pursuing my interests on a much more regular basis.

Ms Lorraine Harris (SA) – Has not judged working dogs in NSW to my knowledge.

Property

Mr K Cook - Working Dog Group judge. Breed Aust Cattle Dogs. Long association with Aust Working Dogs.

Mr J Birch – Breed Specialist who has been breeding, exhibiting and judging Border Collies for many years.

Mrs B Skilton – Draws a large entry.

Ms M Thomas – New/recent judge

CCD, Novice, UD, UDX Obedience

Mrs L Ellem - Experienced obedience judge with an interest in the breed.

Herdin

Mrs S Fedoryschyn - Club member/past involvement in the breed.
